Dedication

In the past, a yearbook dedication has often been a somewhat passive honor. No so with the 1965 Colonial. Nothing about our dedication or our teacher is passive. From the first day of our official sophomore organization, Mrs. Hastings has been with us advising, consenting, asserting, permitting, and helping us to function as a class and an efficient unit. It has been an honor for us to have Mrs. Hastings work with us. And it is with pleasure and pride that we dedicate our yearbook to our advisor, teacher, and helper, Mrs. Mary Hastings.

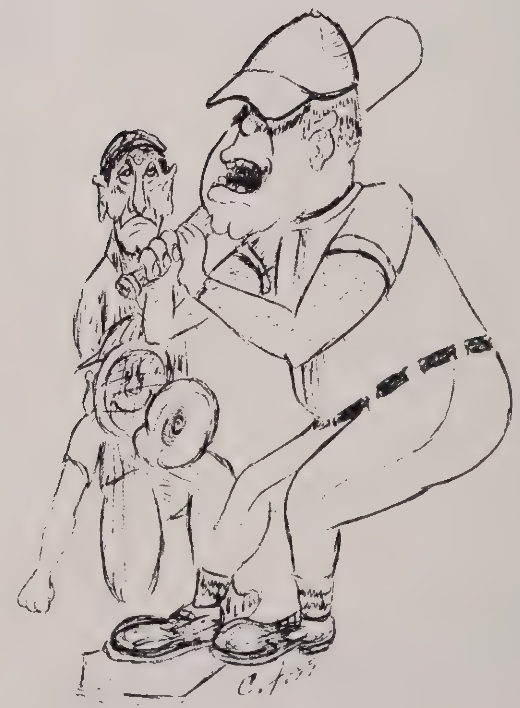
As Coach Kleminich surveys the field, he shows that the coach stands alone.



Cross Country

The roaring crowds and the big write-ups are not a part of Cross-Country. This is a sport demanding individual endurance and effort. Although not a power in Cross-Country Shrewsbury has always won its share of meets and had a few stand-outs. Juniors Tom Atwood and Ken Bell are considered to be two of the best runners in Central Mass. Backing them up this year were the solid performances of Seniors Michael Coleman, Dale Anderson, John Hadidian, Bob McPherson, and Co-Captain Steve Knight. Although it is an individual sport the Colonial harriers called upon a team effort many time to pull out several victories.

Tall trees offer a cold backdrop for four Colonial harriers.

"SHREWSBURY BEATS BACK MARLBORO" read the headline that Saturday afternoon in September, but no-one in Shrewsbury had to read it. After eleven years of being subdued by "Marlboro's Neanderthal men", the Colonials turned like roaring lions to end their rival's dominance. A fitting beginning to the finest season among Mario Marchisio's five as coach here at Shrewsbury. Combining a vaunted

"Tired Warrior"

The vaunted Shrewsbury defense was led by Co-Captains Paul Couture (in the foreground) and Don La Coursierre (in the center).

defense, averaging 200 lb. in the line and an explosive offense led by the passing of Eric Johnson and the speed and power of Stan Shustak, Noel Hare, and Paul Couture blasting through the gaping hole opened up by such stalwarts as Don LaCoursierre, Ken Hoss, Angelo Tamburro, and Tom Moroney, the team pounded through an almost perfect season.

Blockers (from l.) Tom Moroney, Noel Hare, and Paul Couture clear a momentary hole for Stan Shustak.

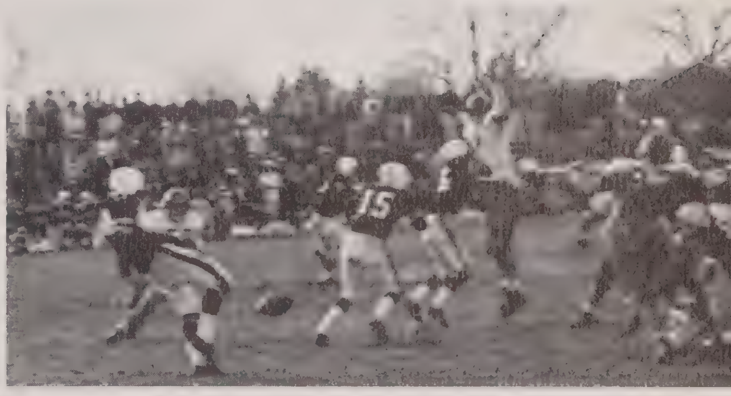
No. 24 made a habit of out-running enemy defenders this year and was awarded the Most Valuable Player Trophy by his coaches.

A fitting end to a glorious season, the Colonials smartly maneuvered through the mud and rain to soundly whip a good Auburn team. The "Most Valuable Player" of the game, Paul Couture, continually broke away for long jaunts through the middle of the Auburn line. At the Awards Assembly the President of the Auburn Student Council presented the trophy, which Shrewsbury has retired, to the Co-Captains Don La Coursierre and Paul Couture. The player who continually gave "1000 per-cent" was Stan Shustak and the coaches honored him with a special trophy.

Noel Hare displays his kicking style as Bob Paradis holds.

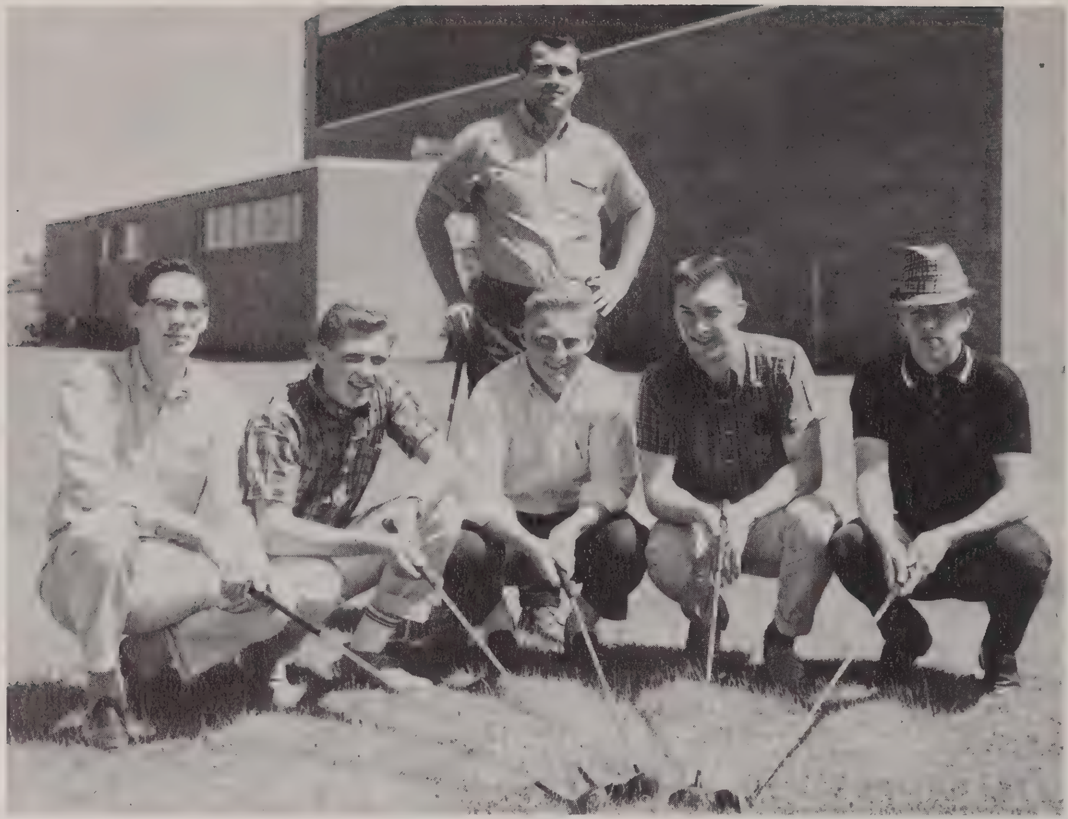
The President of the Auburn Student Council presents the trophy to Co-Captains Paul Couture and Don La Coursierre.

As both lines await the snap of the ball the backs become tense.



As the opposition attemps to punt, the Shrewsbury defenders strive to block it.

The long practice sessions prove to be dreary and demanding.



Everett Casey, John Anderson, Dick Perreault, Dick Peterson, Bob Ritchie, and coach Paul Malkasian.

Golf

What a backswing!

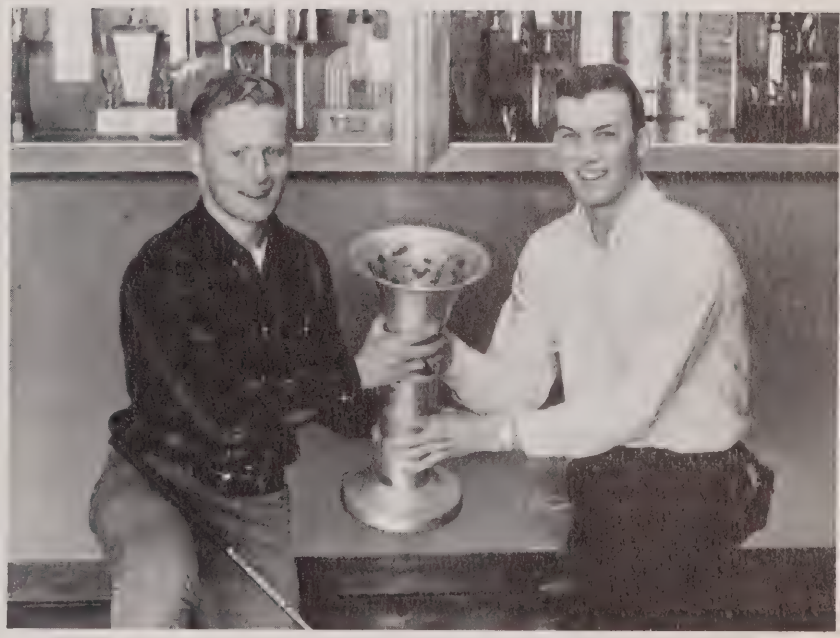
Golf is a sport. A true sportsman is one who plays honestly, fairly, and hard. Our S.H.S. golfers have time and again demonstrated their determination, honesty, and sense of fair play both on the course and in the game itself.

"I guess we should have painted it red!"

Peterson: "72 isn't bad for one day!"

Perreault: "Yeah. Tommorrow we'll try the second hole."

"Are you sure this is the way to play the game?"



A golf trophy has to have a hole in it.

Back row: S. Morse, J. Lingaitis, B. Badgley, K. Keddy. Front row: B. Ambach, J. Saxton, N. Hamerly, C. Peters, S. Pehl, D. Beaudry.

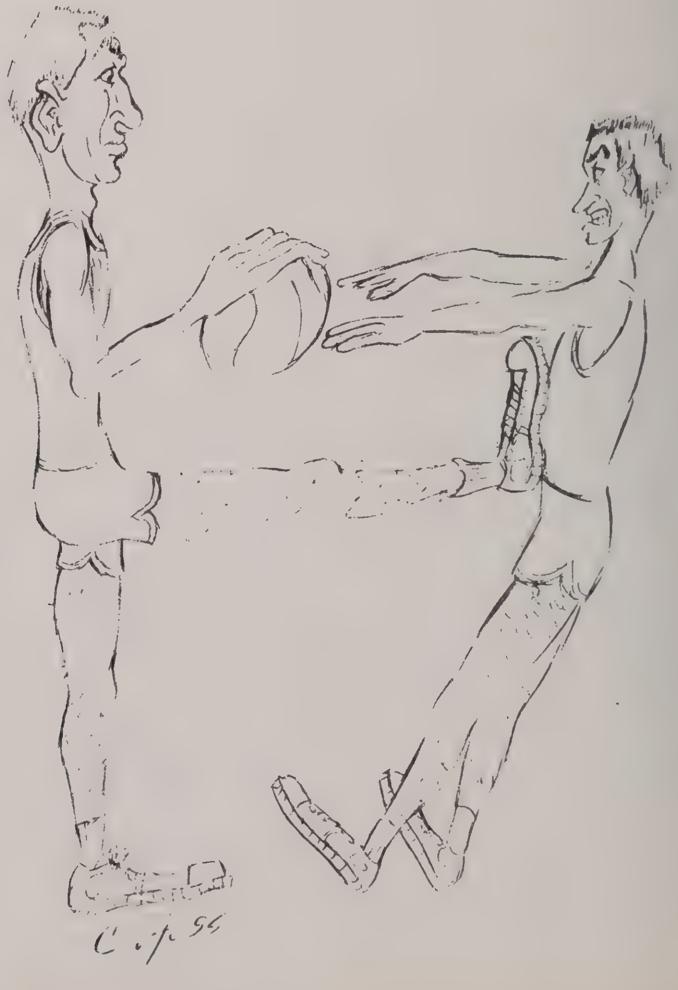
The scoreboard tells of triumph for Shrewsbury at Auburn.

The referee flips the ball, the centers jump, and the teams move into action.



The out-inched, but not out-played Colonials fought gamely against Assumption Prep to almost pull off an upset in the District-Three Tournament. Their performance in that game put a fitting end to a glorious season.

MISS ETHEL SAWIN

In March Miss Sawin announced that she would be retiring from the teaching profession at the end of the school year, June 1965. At that time she will have completed almost fifty years in the education profession, thirty-eight years of which were with the Shrewsbury School system.

She holds degrees from Framingham Normal, Boston University, Columbia University and a Masters Degree from the State University of Iowa. She also pursued special studies at many of the nation's leading universities including Harvard University. Her major field was Social Studies.

She came to Shrewsbury in 1927, having first taught in Harwich, Massachusetts. She served as Director of the Social Studies Department up to June 1964. In 1959 she was appointed as the Director of Curriculum and immediately commenced on the revising and updating of the school system's curriculum from Grade One to Grade Twelve.

She has been a very active member of many state and national teaching and educational associations. She has traveled extensively throughout America and Europe. We express the gratitude of all to her and wish her many happy years of retirement.

Robert S. Ciappenelli
June 5, 1947 — July 21, 1965

Death is never easy. No matter how or why or when, it is impossible to understand. Chip, so young, so much a part of us, so very full of fun, is gone from us. Chip was Life and Youth personified. And now, as if to sober us, a part of Life and Youth has left.
